Hi! My name is Adam. I'm a freelance video editor and animator based in Richmond, VA.

My range of understanding is vast: from full time to freelance, from pre to post, I have experience in all aspects of video-making. And while I've worn many hats, editing and animation are my true passion – a passion that is further strengthened by this comprehensive insight. Whether it's a cut or a keyframe, I love the process, and I love telling stories.
